VERSE-1 m.1

Every time I talk to her
My eyes get wet
Like looking through a fish bowl
Like talking to the rain

And every time I try to sing to her
The way you're s'posed to beneath her window
My throat just fills with dirt
I don't know what to say

PRE-CHORUS m.21

And when I see her
It's like every tree's on fire
My chest caves in
I don't know what to say to her
Except that I'm a liar

VERSE-2 m.31

I sleep too long I sleep too late
Dreaming of her in clouds and air
She waits for me leaning on a stop sign

She looks underwater with the wind in her hair
And then of a sudden there's no sign of her
I've slept too late again
Monday morning comes around

CHORUS m.51

But today I woke up with a song in my head
Fed the cats took a piss
And didn't get back in bed
But today I'll sing for her
Not like the others do
"Fire, water, dirt, and air,"
"All flow to you!"

SOLO VERSE m.55

PRE-CHORUS m.75

And when I see her
It's like every tree's on fire
My chest caves in
I don't know what to say to her
Except that I'm a liar

VERSE-3 m.85

"I need another verse," she said,
(At least she said so in my head)
"If this song's for me"
"It's not nearly long enough."

Why can't I just trust myself for once?
Why must it rain, why must it rust?
Every time I cut her from my heart
She just grows back again.

CHORUS m.105

But today I woke up with a song in my head
Fed the cats took a piss
And didn't get back in bed
But today I'll sing for her
Not like the others do
"Fire, water, dirt, and air,"
"All flow to you!"

CHORUS m.109

But today I woke up with a song in my head
Fed the cats took a piss
And didn't get back in bed
But today I'll sing for her
When my song is done
"Fire, water, dirt, and air,"
"Will be as one!"

LAST CHORD m.113
